

40 Simple Ways to be Inclusive

Make friends with someone different than you

Be curious about people

Recognize each other's hard work

Create opportunities for others

Encourage Feedback in team meetings

Challenge assumptions and remarks made by others

Value different perspectives

Learn about someone else's culture

Be mindful of everyone's pronouns

Learn to see yourself as others see you

Call out non-inclusive behavior

Meet people halfway

Ask a team member if they are okay

Put yourself in someone else's shoes

Be a role model of inclusive behavior

Step back & consider team diversity

Encourage contributions from others

Walk the talk

Become a mentor or mentee

Know what your body language is saying

Cast more inclusively

Say thank you

Learn and remember crew members' names

Listen unconditionally

Watch or read international news

Encourage different types of communication

Be Kind!

Support others in achieving their goals

Reserve judgment

Eat lunch with someone from another department on set

Get to know people across different teams

Participate in diversity and inclusion workshops

Be a champion of work-life balance

Be mindful of your language

Be just and compassionate

Be accountable

Exclude no one

Prioritize Authentic Storytelling

Adapt your leadership style

Ask about dietary restrictions/ dietary preferences for craft services

Champion Inclusion

